

53 BOOKS .

Chelsea Library 6 January - 29 January 2016

An exhibition consisting of a selection of book works by AMBruno, representing their seven years of activity. AMBruno is a coalition of artists each with diverse practices, such as painting, photography, video, performance, printmaking and sculpture, brought together by a common interest in the medium of the book. Participating artists produce new work to a given theme to be shown at exhibitions and specialist fairs. For this exhibition books have been selected from six of these projects: Black Circle, Lines, Sixteen, Lists etc, Red and One-fold books.
